ESSENTIAL DETAILS TO KEEP IN MIND

1 Before Your Wedding

- Decide Who Will Ship Your Bouquet: Coordinate with the person responsible for sending your stunning bouquet.
- Share Packaging Instructions: Forward the detailed packaging instructions (sent to your email) to the person shipping your flowers.
- Prepare Packaging Materials: Ensure you have all the required materials ready to go. Check the full list below for reference!

2 After the Festivities

- Keep Flowers Fresh: Immediately after your wedding, place your bouquet stems in water and store them in a cool location.
- For flowing bouquets or those secured with a floral foam structure, water the foam to keep the flowers hydrated.
- To preserve freshness, store the bouquet in the fridge and avoid direct sunlight.

3 Next Business Day

- Pack Your Bouquet for Shipping: Follow the packaging instructions provided below.
- Make sure you do your diligence for pricing.
- Ship Your Bouquet Promptly: Use UPS or FedEx to overnight or 2-day ship your bouquet to us. (These companies have better tracking information but use which ever carrier you choose)
- Don't forget to write down the tracking # information

BOUQUET SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS

1 Shipping Material

- Bouquet & any additions (boutonniere, photos, invite, etc)
- Paper Towels & Packing Paper or Foam Peanuts (for padding)
- Sturdy Shipping box
- Plastic Wrap
- Rubber Bands
- Scissors
- Packing Tape
- FRAGILE Sticker
- Label in the box with: Full Name, Order #, and Phone Number

2 Prepare the Stems

- Trim 1/2" to 1" off the bottom ends of the flower stems at a diagonal using sharp scissors.
- Gently pat the stems dry to remove excess moisture.
- Remove any special attachments, such as ribbons, family heirlooms, or decorative charms, from your bouquet.

3 Wrap the Bouquet

- Loosely wrap your bouquet with wet paper towel around the bottom.
- Wrap the towel-covered stems in plastic wrap to secure moisture. Tie a rubber band around the base to hold it in place.

4 Pack the Box

- Line the bottom of a sturdy shipping box with crumpled tissue or packing paper.
- Place the wrapped bouquet in the center of the box, ensuring it is stable.
- Add any additional items (boutonniere, photos, invitations, heirlooms, etc.) in a resealable plastic bag or small protective container for extra security.
- Fill any remaining space with additional crumpled tissue or packing paper to prevent the bouquet from shifting during transit. (DO NOT USE ANY PLASTIC OR BUBBLE WRAP WHEN PACKING)
